

Volumen 3 Número 2 Julio 2020

Presbyter Dino Aurelio Campana Monti. Diffuser of Love and Peace. A Neohumanist Vision of his Life.

Author: MSc Elías A. Gil P.

Assistant Professor: from the National Experimental University of the Central Plains “Rómulo Gallegos” U.N.E.R.G.

Email: egil@unerg.edu.ve

Research line: Integral Human Development

ABSTRACT

This research deals with a life story, is based on the postpositive or qualitative paradigm and is linked methodologically with the life story of the Pbro. Dino Aurelio Campana Monti, in the same way is an important aspect in the daily life of the Calaboceño community, it was oriented under the life stories method, the setting is the Miranda Municipality of the Calabozo Parish of the Guárico state. The key informant in this study is Pbro. Dino Campana. The interview technique was used under the unstructured modality, participant observation was also used, the instruments used were an interview guide and the journal, the validity was achieved through the use of different sources of data collection. simultaneous data. For the conformation of the history of Life of the Pbro. Dino Aurelio Monti, a photographic memory provided by one of the key informants was used. It is important to say that the character under study is a person with great charisma for children, with an exceptional history of priestly life, and a dedication to the service of those most in need, based on the precepts of loving others as oneself.

Descriptors: Lay life, love, peace, vision of life.

Biographical Review: I was born in the Guárico state dungeon in 1983. I am a research professor at UNERG, currently working as head of the department of professional practices in the Area of Humanities, Letters and Arts since its foundation in 2010.